The Resource Exchange announces new Board Member

Tina Swonger joins TRE as 13th member of its Board of Directors

The Resource Exchange (TRE) welcomes Tina Swonger, its 13th member of its Board of Directors.

Swonger is an active member of the community, having been involved in organizations such as Partners in Housing, Mosaic, Mary's Home, and Springs Rescue Mission. She and her husband own three businesses and Tina has been a successful full-time residential realtor for 30 years.

Swonger grew up in St. Louis, Missouri with two younger brothers, one with special needs who currently lives with her. She has lived in Colorado since 1984 and has called Colorado Springs home since 1994. She and her husband have been married over 22 years and have five sons and nine grandchildren.

Swonger's passion is helping older adults and the elderly as well as difficult family and estate situations that require sensitivity, in-depth knowledge, patience and compassion. She loves spending time with her family enjoying anything from scuba diving to traveling and staying fit and healthy.

A copy of Swonger's head shot is attached to this advisory. For this complete bio online, visit <https://www.tre.org/about-us/board-of-directors/>.

The Resource Exchange (TRE) is a local nonprofit that partners with people who have delays or disabilities, mental health or long-term care needs. TRE covers El Paso, Teller and Park counties and some portions of Pueblo County.
